PRESS RELEASE 9/2019

Successful Weekend for Diana Porsche

Dear Sir or Madam!

Austrian dressage rider Diana Porsche ended a very successful weekend in Achleiten (CDI4*; Upper Austria) with a second place in the Intermediaire I on Sunday. The talented 23-year-old previously won the Intermediaire II on Thursday as well as the Under-25 Grand Prix on Friday. On Saturday's international Prix St. Georges, Porsche was only beaten by superstar Victoria Max-Theurer.

The Salzburg-based athlete completed the weekend with two different horses. On Thursday and Friday she achieved a double victory with Oldenburg gelding „Di Sandro OLD“. In the last two competitions, Porsche took second place with international inexperienced Dutch warmblood „Douglas“.

„Today's competition was not perfect but we had a better feeling than yesterday. It's obvious that Douglas is gaining experience. All in all, I am very happy with this weekend. Di Sandro could win both qualifications for the Under-25 European Championship!“, says Porsche, who is already looking forward to her next competition in Wattens (Tyrol, Austria) on June 28th.
